

Biography – Councilor James Giannettino

Councilor James N. ‘Jimmy’ Giannettino, Jr. was born and raised in Auburn, New York. After graduating from high school he enlisted in the United States Air Force, served five years, and after being honorably discharged in 1998, decided to return to Auburn with his wife Toni.

After returning to Auburn Councilor Giannettino went to work at Community Computer Service, Inc./MEDENT where he has been employed for the last 18 eighteen years. He graduated from Columbia College of Missouri, Hancock Field Campus with a Bachelor’s Degree in History, and later from SUNY Oswego with a Master’s Degree in History. Since 2008, he has been an Adjunct Professor of American History at his alma mater, Columbia College.

He and his wife Toni have been married for 19 years and they have two children, Andrew and Gracie.

Community Involvement:

- Vice-President, Board of Trustees, Cayuga Museum of History and Art
- Board Member, Majorpalooza and organizer of the Catch Me if You Can 5k Race
- Board Member, Perform-4-Purpose
- Past Officer, S-K Post #1324 American Legion
- Volunteer basketball coach – CCYO
- Member of Mayor Carnicelli’s Youth Council