Media Release

Subject: Auburn Police to Participate in No Shave November campaign

Date: October 25, 2016

For Immediate Distribution**

We Mustache you to read, don't Shave it for later! Joining forces with the Cayuga County Sheriff's Office in order to raise money towards cancer prevention, treatment, and research, members of the Auburn Police Local 195 in cooperation with Chief Shawn Butler and Deputy Chief Roger Anthony will take part in the national campaign known as "No Shave November". Participating members will pledge to donate $1.00 for every day they do not shave with all proceeds going to the American Cancer Society through the non-profit organization No-shave.org.

Male employees will be allowed to grow a beard which is normally a violation of department policy and female employees can either wear a blue police baseball hat or add some blue streaking to their hair in order to participate in the event with their male counterparts. The overall goal is to raise $1,000 for this great cause.

At the conclusion of the event, those officers wishing to participate will enter a voting contest via our department Facebook page where we will ask the public to vote on which member grew the best beard. The winning member will have an additional $200.00 donated in their name on behalf of Local 195 and the Chiefs of Police.

We encourage the public to donate as well by going to our team page listed in the link below and donating to your favorite officer!
