CITY OF AUBURN RECEIVES LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

The New York State Conference of Mayors (NYCOM) has recognized the City of Auburn for its “Pango Pay-By-Phone Parking Project.” The program was awarded First Place (Population Category: 10,000 to 50,000) in NYCOM’s 27th Annual Local Government Achievement Awards Program.

In commenting on the award, NYCOM President Richard Donovan, Mayor of the Village of Minoa, stated: “The City of Auburn is to be commended for this excellent program. This award recognizes that local officials have been and are continuing to work diligently to improve their communities and the quality of life for their residents in efficient and innovative ways. I would like to congratulate Mayor Quill on a job well done.”

The Conference of Mayors represents 583 cities and villages in New York State. It has been in existence since 1910.
